Co-CEO Sebastian-Justus Schmidt resigns from the Management Board for personal reasons

Berlin (29.12.2023/ 19:35) The Co-CEO of Enapter AG, Sebastian-Justus Schmidt, informed the Supervisory Board today that he would like to step down from the Management Board for personal reasons as of 31 December 2023. Mr Schmidt will continue to be available to the company as a consultant. In preparation for Mr Schmidt's possible departure, the Supervisory Board had already appointed Dr Jürgen Laakmann as Co-CEO with effect from 1 July 2023. Dr Laakmann will continue to manage the company as CEO together with CFO Gerrit Kaufhold. The Supervisory Board would like to thank Mr Schmidt for his many years of trusting cooperation and is pleased that Mr Schmidt will remain closely associated with Enapter AG not only in an advisory capacity but also as a major shareholder.

About Enapter

Enapter is an innovative energy technology company that manufactures highly efficient hydrogen generators - so-called electrolyzers - to replace fossil fuels and thus drive the energy transition globally. The patented and proven anion exchange membrane (AEM) technology enables the mass production of cost-effective electrolyzers for the production of green hydrogen on any scale. The modular systems are already used worldwide in the energy, mobility, industry, heating and telecommunications sectors, among others. Enapter has its headquarters in Germany and a production site in Italy.

Enapter AG is listed on the regulated market of the Frankfurt and Hamburg stock exchanges, WKN: A255G0, ISIN: DE000A255G02
